

! 2018 BOARD OF APPEALS OVERVIEW

The Board of Appeals is a statutorily created board and is created as an amendment to Section 112 of the International Building Code. The Board's function is to hear and decide appeals, decisions or determinations made by the building official relative to the application and interpretation of the building code. The Board may also determine the suitability of alternate materials and methods of construction. The building official shall be an ex-officio member of the Board and act as secretary to the board, but has no vote on any matter before the board. The Board of Appeals consists of 5 members who have experience in the building trades.
